Subject: Conditional Use Application No. 851-19-0000105-PLNG

Good morning:

In January of this year, I posted a video on my YouTube channel showing the residential community of Tierra Del Mar and the site at issue in the above referenced Application. The Applicant's materials included photos carefully focused on a narrow field view of the site. The posted video shows the site within the residential community in its whole and in the community in context to its unique location on the County's coastline.

I respectfully request this email message, the link provided herein and the video content posted on YouTube at said link be included in the record for the Commission's review of this Application.

Link to video referenced herein as on YouTube: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kSB_zGdLHn8&t=181s

Thank you for your attention to this request.
